

Volunteer Receptionist

What will you do?

- complete an introduction to Citizens Advice and training for your role
- work with Citizens Advice Compliance Manager to ensure the organisation is running efficiently.

Some examples of what you could do:

- Answering the door intercom
- Answering the telephone and passing on of messages
- Meeting and greeting clients
- Meeting and greeting visitors and issuing of visitor lanyards
- Taking delivery of items
- Keeping stock of signing in sheets/appointment sheets

What's in it for you?

- make a real difference to people's lives
- build on valuable skills such as communication and listening
- increase your employability
- work with a range of different people, independently and in a team
- Increase Administrative skills

And we'll reimburse expenses too.

What do you need to have?

You don't need specific qualifications or skills but you'll need to:

- be friendly and approachable
- be non-judgmental and respect views, values and cultures that are different to your own
- have good listening skills

- administration skills and/or reception experience
- have excellent verbal and written communication skills
- have good maths and IT skills
- be able to understand information and explain it to others
- be willing to learn about and follow the Citizens Advice aims, principles and policies, including confidentiality and data protection
- be willing to undertake training in your role

How much time do you need to give?

Ideally we ask for 6 hours per week, which can be over one day or spread over two days, for at least 6 months.

We can be flexible so come and talk to us.

Valuing inclusion

Our volunteers come from a range of backgrounds and we particularly welcome applications from disabled people, people with physical or mental health conditions, LGBT+ and non-binary people, and people from Black Asian Minority Ethnic (BAME) communities.

If you are interested in becoming a Central Support Administrator and would like to discuss flexibility around location, time, 'what you will do' and how we can support you please contact us.
